Hello Skysims fans!

I'm Nadiah, the webmistress of the site. I write you to let you know that the site is not abandoned. Due to personal reasons I cannot update the site as often as I was doing in the past, but that doesn't mean that it won't never be updated again. My intention is to update the site at least once a month, and whenever it is possible to do it once every 15 days. Thanks for your support and I hope you keep visiting us, as always. On the other hand, let me remind you that we update our facebook and twitter often, so to be up-to-date visit us there: you can see news, screenshots, etc. Thank you. See you around!

Soon, we'll be back.
